Our world has shifted so far out of balance that it's now out of control; and so many are hearing the urgency to bring forth change during this storm to reach beyond our world for the peace and calm to guide the direction of our life and our world!

The raging world of today is sick and divided. Governments are reacting with power and force to bring back order. The wholeness of our world is splintered and has scattered by the four winds and our world is split and raging. We are fighting against each other in an uphill battle to find peace and balance. The problem is that the outside world is a reflection of our inside world. Our world will not change until we all take responsibility and change our individual lives.

Our world is in a time of darkness which is filled with shadows, smoke and mirrors that keep us lost in our distractions and deceptions. We have forgotten the light that frees our spirit to navigate the dark depths of this world. During this darkness those with the strings into ancient teachings have rocked our world into the current state.

Now is the time of revealing. We are awakening and enlightening our souls. The distortions from the time of darkness are coming into the light. The heavy burden of times past is being freed. We are rediscovering our innate understanding and our ability to cohesively live within our inspiration. The bits of disjointed and disconnected truths are being weaved back together. The split of our ideals and our values are being aligned with the choices we are making in this world. The line is being drawn in the sand. We are claiming where we belong.

We stand at the precipice with the opportunity to tip the scales and reconnect all that has been lost. This is our time to reweave the tapestry of life and set forth a new story into the future. Our understanding of truth and life is coming into focus and is available to be reclaimed as our own. We can heal that has torn our soul apart and cohere all that has been separated for far too long. The truth is that we are very, very powerful and are not using all that we have in our abilities to navigate our lives. The origins and wisdoms that are ours to know and use in this world are concealed behind veils waiting to be revealed. This is the era to reach beyond all that we see and retrieve that which is ours to claim, own and use to the fullest power.

We are currently torn between the extremes of our world and stuck in the insanity of all that does not ring true with who we are and why we are here. Our ideals say one thing and the world another. What to believe and who to trust is a web of complication. We create a small world and uphold a vision that this is our life and this is all we can do. Though the box seems too small and we gaze into the distance knowing there is more we remain confined to all that we see and those 'things' that make up our world that define our life.

Our world is far greater, deeper and vast than we can imagine. The depths of our soul reach into realms beyond all that we realize. Our autopilot keeps us on the conveyor belt moving along in a predetermined path. This mechanistic flat world is not real. We are living in the means for other's ends. This matrix is created to appease our vision to a lesser level. Happily we take the medicine and keep life in little unrelated boxes of unrealized possibilities and limited choices.

Our damaged being is so deep within the biology of the body and every level of our existence in this world, we do not even hear the call deep within our soul to wake up and see beyond all that keeps us deceived and distracted. This world is not here to placate our beings and entertain us into a distracted sleep. The urge to more is becoming stronger and stronger. We are starting to be called to choose. The divide between the darkness and light is growing greater and greater.

The truth is not to live in light beyond our realm of this world or in the depths of the darkness, but realize that the smallest of spark expels the expanse of darkness and brings definition to our life. Darkness is part of our existence and bounds the dual nature of this dimension. By connecting to the divine, the light beyond this world, the trinity brings balance between the light and the dark which frees the soul in this world. This enlightenment through our revelation of our dualistic nature and our dualistic world, our trinity brings forth cohesion and connectedness with all life, all form and all that exists in this world and beyond.

This existence is expanding our universe and creating beyond all that exists. A storm will rage until the balance is achieved. The divisions will continue until we realize our effects and change our own directions.

Four corners pulling at our soul to keep us locked in the dualism of this world:

Being HURT & WANTING the victimizing to stop

Being ALONE & WANTING comfort

Being ANGRY & WANTING justice

Being STUCK & WANTING the right way to go

Being LESS & Wanting MORE....

Therefore, believe in who we are and realize that we can empower our soul and free our spirit by knowing we have all that we need in this world. This is the life we wanted and the experience is here to stretch our soul. Embrace all that is and reach for what is ours:
Learn how to BE in this world.

Learn how to live beyond the limiting nature of our desires and wants to realize that our ACTIONS create the path we are on.

Listen for our CALLING from beyond our existence.

Dedicate to the JOURNEY.

Take RESPONSIBILITY for all that is ours to own and let the rest go.

Make the CHOICE.

Deborah Sue Pomeroy Reckmeyer lives in Northern Virginia with her husband and children. She works from home on a variety of projects ranging from consulting to supporting authentic living and conscious creation. She is developing a host of websites dedicated to bringing people and needed resources together so that each can embrace their personal power by ‘doing their own research’ and taking personal responsibility in their own lives.

Deborah has been called a philosopher, a visionary, a teacher, a healer, a prophet, a muse, a mentor, a friend, a wife, a mother, a sister and a daughter. Actually she is a spiritual being of light energy experiencing and expressing herself imperfectly through her limiting bio-suit that does not fit her free spirit within this dimension, like everyone else.

Deborah lives in the broken world with the rest of us. She, as others do, expresses her vision with her wisdoms in today's culture. She has studied and researched science, physics, the language of math, medicine, healing, philosophy, history (ancient origins & myths), psychology, education, teaching, human development, animal training and many other pursuits. Each falls short from the vision that Deborah holds. Plainly life does not work. Many would say that Deborah has failed to fit into the current system of this dimension. Deborah would say that the current system has failed to work (not only for herself), and she is dedicated to her part in forging the new way that will bring forth a world that works for all. Deborah is currently pursuing many esoteric teachings to further her personal evolution and expansion.
